
Need Part-Time Assistant? Have IS Experience...

Posted by Gary Bearman - 2009/07/17 08:07

For some reason I keep finding employers who don't have enough funds to pay me full time, so I'm looking to supplement the hours my current employers can handle with 10-30 hours per week, even if it's just on a short-term basis.

I have 20+ years experience working in offices and doing all manner of administrative duties, and I have about 5 years of experience working remotely from home.

I have slightly less than a year experience with Infusionsoft, but have come to know it quite well, and would be happy to assist you in your business.

Resume and references available upon request. Please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Hello Infusionsoft people!

As an update, I've been doing various assignments for people, and am now open to SHORT TERM, PART-TIME ASSIGNMENTS.

If you are looking for a short term part-time virtual assistant for an Infusionsoft related project, I'm your man!

REASONABLE RATES!

RESUME & REFERENCES AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST!

Contact me today at soulgoober@hotmail.com or (541) 778-7339.

Sincerely,

Hey there Gary

So...$? And how it could work? I'm juggling various projects and one is I need to be an infusionsoft expert. I had a 'horrendous' time on the 'help' line all aft yesterday, and need quick answers that work...for some infusion issue..And maybe other stuff. I'm beginning by stepping into Fusebox. However, I'm always 'under the gun' (my own), and just don't have time to spend 2 hours...etc etc..?

I'm close to Vancouver, BC..

Dana

Hi Dana,

I just happened to see your post. I am a CMAC and can probably help you with your project if that is what you are asking for.

Also, as an infusionsoft CMAC I wouldnt feel right if I didnt direct you to the tools section of the forum. There you can find a CMAC to your liking and one that fits your needs, if I cant help you.

Please feel free to visit my site: www.cressmgmtservice.com
